

2009 Tremblant Blues Festival

Monday, 20 July 2009

For the second year in a row, Runaway Slide was invited to perform their electrifying show at the Tremblant Blues Festival . Despite the occasional rain, blues fans were determined to watch the entire show.

Runaway Slide performed two acoustic songs at 2pm along with other blues artists. At 4pm they performed a 50 minute set including an encore. Justin Saladino also performed along with the Bluesers, Chris Cotton and Cale Hawkins during the closing Jam Session of the Tremblant Blues Festival. Their performance ended with a standing ovation from the crowd.

For additional information regarding this and other show's you may also want to visit <http://runawayslide.blogspot.com/>