

Kitchener Blues Festival 2009

Saturday, 08 August 2009

The Kitchener Blues Festival was Runaway Slide's first performance in Ontario. The boy's were given the opportunity to play at two show's. The 12:00 show was held under the Downtown Business Tent smack in the middle of downtown Kitchener.

The second show was held at 4:30 at the Victoria Park Boathouse. This show included other young musicians Alex Tintinalli and Colin White. All together they rocked the house and had the people asking for more.

For additional information regarding this and other show's you may also want to visit <http://runawayslide.blogspot.com/>