

Victoriaville Blues Festival 2009

21-08-2009

* [à traduire] *Runaway Slide performing at the Victoriaville Blues Festival. The organizers setup a professional looking stage with lights and smoke. The boy's were extremely pleased with the stage setup and the sound. Many people came out to watch the show and were all surprised to see the type of performance coming from these young musicians.

Unfortunately, the boy's were forced to cut their set by 15 minutes due to rain which included thunder and lightning. At the end of the day, they still enjoyed their experience in Victoriaville.

For more on this story, including some pictures, please visit Runaway Slide's blog .