Runaway Slide's last summer festival show was at the Trois Rivieres en Blues festival. It was a beautiful summer day and the streets were filled with people itching to hear some good blues. Runaway Slide definitely delivered a memorable performance.

Later in the evening, Justin got the opportunity to perform with Paul Deslauriers and was called the "crowd favorite" by a local news reporter of Le Nouvelliste, Mathieu Lamothe. Also joining Justin on stage was Jim Zeller.
